ABOUT HOSS HOWARD:

Hoss is excited about opening for one of his heroes. "There are singers and then there's Joe Diffie. I like all of his stuff, but Ships That Don't Come In, is my favorite. We play Pick-up Man from time to time in our own show. I'm lucky and I feel like a kid in a candy store. John Anderson, Diamond Rio, and now Joe Diffie. What an Honor."

Hoss' debut single "Twang Thang" is currently being released to radio and touring dates are being added. 'FRIENDS' should expect to see Hoss and the Octane band soon, in a city near you. The album, "Country On Octane" (Spectra Records), will be available in stores by Mid Summer and can be purchased through digital outlets such as iTunes, Napster, Rhapsody and Amazon to name a few.
